dedication

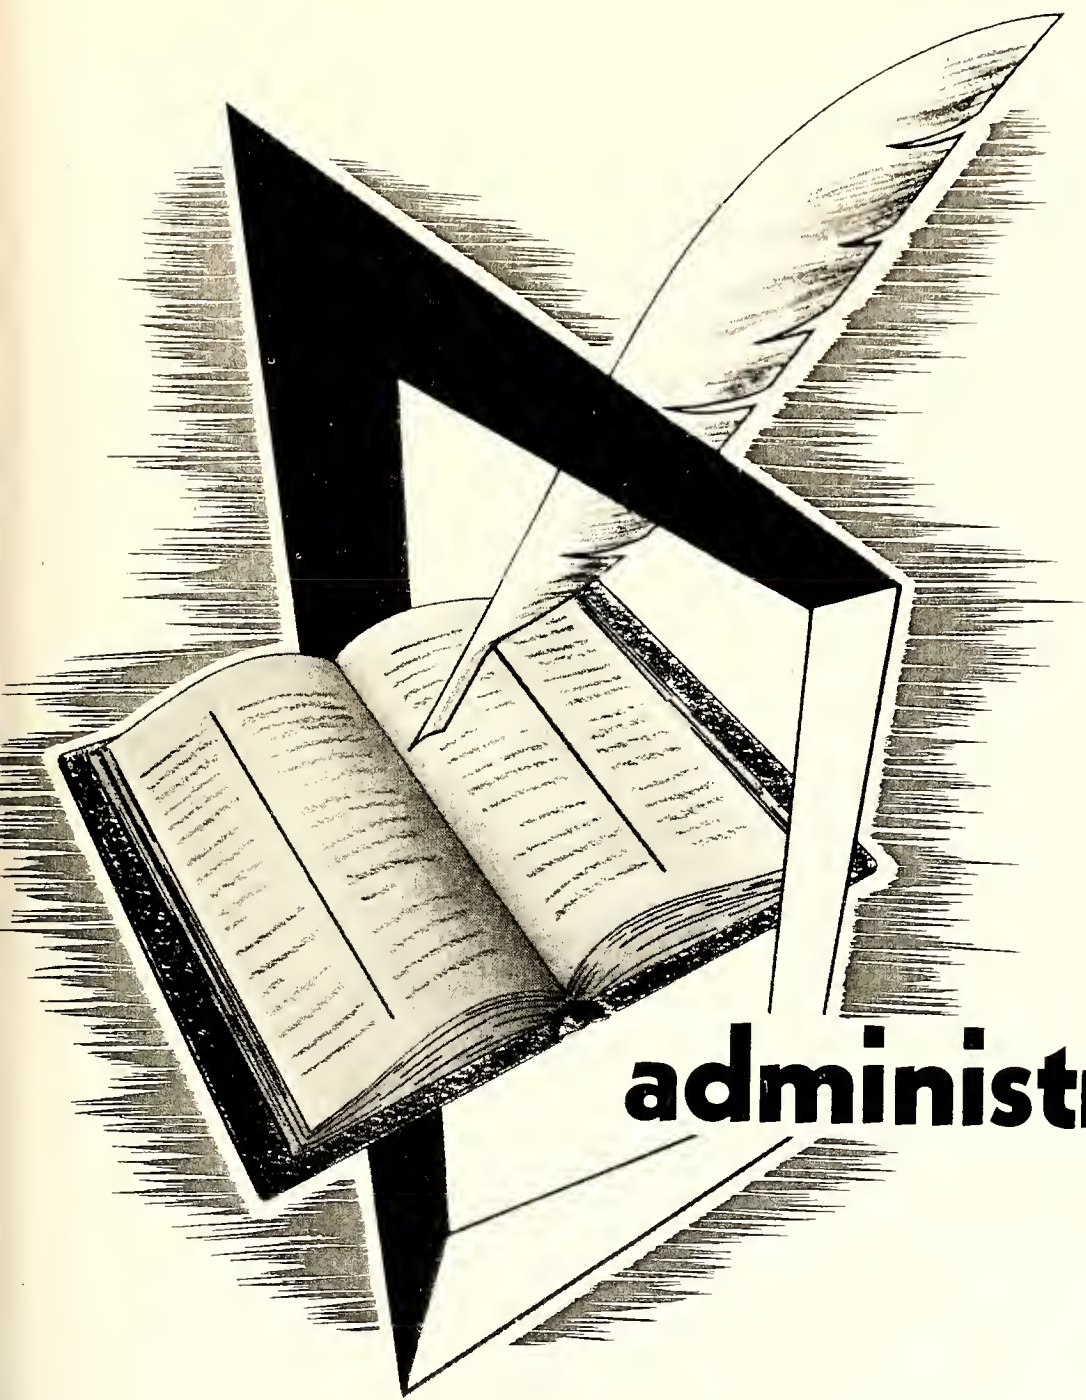

1952

We, the Senior Class of Stovall High School, dedicate this, our School's first Annual, to Miss Flora Ed. Riggan, who has used so much of her time and talent to make it what it is. As our teacher, adviser and friend, she has done much the three years she has been at Stovall to make them happy ones for us. She has contributed much to the school life, and is always ready to enter wholeheartedly into any constructive undertaking. We know of no better way to express our gratitude and affection than to dedicate to her

WE SALUTE THE BASKETBALL VARSITY!

1951 - 1952 brought both thrills and disappointments on the gym floor. The grand showing of the boys' basketball team in the semi-finals of the Granville County Tournament filled the hearts of their supporters with pride. To lose by just three points caused hearts to sink but did not dim the pride.

The boys' team coached by Mr. T. G. Stovall worked hard until the finish. This year, varsity letters were awarded for team participation for the past two years. Receiving letters for the previous year were Taylor Faucette, Dan Cottrell, George Timberlake, Everette Bean and Jimmy Wilson. Letters (or service bars in case of the second year) were awarded for this year to Waverly Breedlove, Julian Winston, Melvin Grissom, Dan Cottrell, Taylor Faucette and George Timberlake.

Although the girls' basketball team, Miss Flora Ed. Riggan, Coach, did not finish the season with an impressive number of wins, it was a profitable year of learning the full meaning of sportsmanship, of acquiring the ability to accept victory or defeat, making new and lasting friends, enjoying working together to accomplish a purpose, and taking part in the thrilling game of basketball.

Letters were awarded to Etta Jane Matthews, Barbara Tingen, Sally Bullock, Bertha Guthrie Wilson and Rachel Parham for their contribution to the 1950-1951 season of basketball. Letter awards (or service bars in the case of two years of award) were made to Etta Jane Matthews, Bertha Guthrie Wilson, Sally Ann Bullock, Rachel Parham, Rebecca Hart, Ruby Capps and Minnie Ann Parham for their work this year.
